

Name _____

Date _____

Expository Express

An expository paragraph gives information about a topic. It may tell how to do something, explain ideas, or give directions.

A large rectangular box containing horizontal lines for writing, representing the main body of the train car. Below the lines is a space for a name:

_____ name

